

IX Edition - Study visit to PHILADELPHIA AND 4 DAYS IN NEW YORK CITY

April 23 - May 2, 2023

“The best possible exposure you could ever get to the U.S. system of law and justice through court visits, observation of jury trials and meetings with key players of the legal community.”

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

- Mini-lectures on the American legal system over breakfast;
 - visit to civil and criminal courts (meeting with judges and observation of jury trials);
 - visit to Temple Law School and Trial Advocacy center;
 - visit to law firms, FBI headquarters and Federal Prosecution Office;
 - guided tour of National Constitution Center;
 - tour of Eastern State Penitentiary.
- (In New York City) Visits to Brooklyn Law School, 9/11 Memorial

SOCIAL PROGRAM

- Tour of Philadelphia’s main attractions, including Rocky steps and City Hall;
- free time and “do-what-you-want” Sunday in New York City;
- social dinners, gala reception and night-outs;
- sports game & shooting range (optional).

Brooklyn bridge, New York City

Group photo 2019

Group photo 2019

Philadelphia

9/11 memorial, New York City

THIS VISIT IS IDEAL FOR:

- law students and graduates;
- lawyers;
- judges and prosecutors;
- academic lawyers.

No minimum level of English is required as interpreting services and translations are available throughout the visit.

TRAVEL PLANS

Depart on Sunday, April 23 - morning flight from Italy

- 5 nights in Philadelphia (Sun-Thu)
- 3 nights in New York City (Fri-Sun)

Return on Monday, May 1 - night flight from New York City
(arrival in Europe in the morning of May 2)

The visit has run since 2013 and is led by
Stefano Maffei (University of Parma, Italy),
Claudia Ricci (EFLIT, Italy)
and David Sonenshein (Temple Law School, Philadelphia)