

VII Edition - Study visit to LONDON

October 28, November 1, 2020

“Four days of excellent introduction to legal London, through observation of jury trials and court hearings, visits to the Inns of Court and the Supreme Court and meetings with English solicitors and barrister ”

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

- Observation of jury trials at the Old Bailey - the Central Criminal court of London
- Visit to the Royal Courts of Justice and the UK Supreme Court
- Visit to the Inns of Court and meeting with barristers
- Meeting with solicitors at Law Firm Withers - unique for its extremely well established “Italian practice”
- Tour of the Houses of Parliament
- Lunch at The Clink - a restaurant within the walls of Brixton prison run by prisoners as part of a rehabilitation programme.

SOCIAL PROGRAM

- Premier League Soccer Game
- Musical
- Dinners and night-outs
- “Do-what-you-want” Sunday

Royal Courts of Justice

Inns of Court, 2018

Group photo, 2019

Supreme Court, 2016

THIS VISIT IS IDEAL FOR

- Law students and graduates
- Lawyers
- Judges and prosecutors
- Academic lawyers

No minimum level of English is required as interpreting services and translations are available throughout the visit.

TRAVEL PLANS

Book your own flight from your preferred airport

Departure: Wednesday, October 28th

Return: Sunday, November 1st

The visit has run since 2014 and is led by Stefano Maffei (University of Parma, Italy), Claudia Ricci (EFLIT, Italy) and Beatrice Collier (Barrister, London)

